

Clothing and Costume Rental Agreement

This Agreement is made between the Lessor and the Renter named in the Parties section.

1. Garment

The Lessor rents _____ in size _____ (the "Garment"). Colour, description, accessories, condition notes, and photographs may appear in the Details and photo appendices. The Parties should inspect the Garment for stains, damage, missing fastenings, and alterations before handover.

2. Rental period and fee

The rental period is _____. The agreed rental fee is _____. Additional agreed information, including a deposit, cleaning arrangements, or late-return charges, may be recorded in Details. Any such charges must be clearly agreed and lawful.

3. Use and care

The Renter shall wear and handle the Garment with reasonable care, using it for the agreed purpose. The Renter must not cut, dye, permanently alter, decorate, or attach items that may cause lasting damage without the Lessor's consent. The Renter must follow the care instructions supplied by the Lessor and avoid products or cleaning methods that could damage the material.

Normal wear consistent with the permitted use is expected. The Renter should inform the Lessor promptly of accidental tears, staining, lost accessories, or damage, and should not attempt unsuitable repairs or cleaning without advice.

4. Fit, suitability, and hygiene

The Parties should confirm size and obvious suitability at handover. The Lessor shall provide the Garment in a reasonably clean condition appropriate for its intended use and comply with any hygiene or consumer obligations imposed by law. The Renter should raise any concern about unsuitable fit or condition promptly rather than risk damage from continued use.

5. Cleaning and repairs

Cleaning responsibilities should be confirmed before handover. A charge for extraordinary cleaning or damage may be imposed only when the Renter is lawfully responsible and the charge is reasonable and documented. Ordinary laundering or routine preparation for the next customer is not automatically damage. Repairs and replacements should take account of the Garment's age, condition, and actual loss.

6. Return and inspection

The Renter shall return the Garment and all accessories at the agreed end of the rental, following the agreed packaging and return method. The Parties should compare condition with the handover record and note any missing components. Any deposit must be returned, less only permitted and explained deductions.

7. Early end and legal rights

The Parties may agree to an extension or early return. Cancellation, defects, and any refund entitlement are governed by applicable law and agreed terms. Nothing here removes consumer rights or liability that cannot legally be excluded.

8. Agreement record

The body and any completed Details, Parties, Items, and photo appendices record the Parties' agreement. Mandatory law prevails over inconsistent terms.
